

The Jewish people are compared to the letters of the Torah. In our tradition, no letter is more important than another. All the letters of the Holy Torah are interdependent, for without even one letter, the Torah remains incomplete. Similarly, each Jew remains linked with all other Jews in an indissoluble chain.

In the spirit of unity, a community Torah is being written. Regardless of background or affiliation, this Torah connects us all to each other. With one letter, word, sentence, portion or book, you can become part of bringing us all closer to one another and to unifying us into an “Am Echad – One People.”

Link yourself with our community by participating in the writing of this Torah Scroll. Each part of the Torah; letters, words, sentences and Torah Portions, can be dedicated in honor of you, a family member or in memory of a loved one.
